Hebbronville BP agents find pot in tanker truck

Story Created: Apr 16, 2009
(Story Updated: Apr 16, 2009)

Border patrol agents seize more than four hundred pounds of marijuana. The incident occurred at the Hebbronville station yesterday. Agents there were performing an immigration inspection of the driver of an oil field service tanker truck. A canine alerted towards the tank of the truck. Inside agents found 465 pounds of marijuana wrapped in bundles. The drugs and the driver were turned over to the Jim Hogg County Sheriff's Department.
